

Membership Due Rules

§1 Policy

The member dues rules are not part of the articles of association. The rules regulate the contributory obligations of the members, as well as the fees and the shares in cost according to §14 of the articles of association. They can only be changed by the Society's Executive Board.

§2 Liability to contribution and obligation to register

All members have to inform the Society of Chinese Warriors International in writing by 31 January of each calendar year of the numbers of members for the current year. Subsequent amendments are not taken into account.

Membership dues will be debited by 1 March of the current year by direct debit (Germany) directly from the account. The international branches are responsible for the membership payments of the members /group members abroad by 1 March of the current year.
