

Code of Honours

§1 Honours

1. Individuals who rendered outstanding services to the Society of Chinese Warriors International as well as outstanding scientific work in the field of martial arts may become:

- a) Honorary member,
- b) Honorary Chairperson national and international
- c) Honorary President

The President has to receive the application one month before the date of the bestowal. The Management Board decides on the bestowals and they will be certified.

2. Honorary members, Honorary Chairpersons and Honorary Presidents do not have to pay membership fees and are having free entrance to all events of the Society of Chinese Warriors International.

3. Honours can be taken away by the Management Board, if the honorary member has been legally effective excluded from the Society of Chinese Warriors International.

